The Cypress floor plan keeps the layout on one level while making room for 4 bedrooms, 2 full baths, a study and a 2-car garage on an interior homesite in Hulen Trails. A brick-covered front porch and upgraded 8-foot door with glass and iron detailing give the arrival a finished look. The study sits immediately off the foyer behind double doors, keeping a workspace or reading room separate from the main gathering area. Laminate flooring leads through the shared spaces to a family room lined with windows along the exterior wall. A fireplace with tile extending to a cedar mantel and a gas starter adds a focal point. The kitchen, breakfast area and family room connect openly, so setting out food doesn't mean stepping away from the conversation. Two pendant lights highlight the island in the Deluxe Kitchen, where quartz countertops, a gas cooktop and an electric oven support the daily routine. A walk-in pantry adds storage, and the island provides another surface for prep or serving. A window seat gives the breakfast area a little extra personality. The primary bedroom is set apart from the secondary bedrooms and includes a window seat, walk-in closet and bath with dual sinks, a soaking tub and separate shower. Three secondary bedrooms occupy the rear side of the plan, with a full bath accessible from the hall. Laundry sits near the kitchen and garage entry, keeping the route from groceries to pantry short. A covered rear patio extends the living space outdoors for shaded seating or an evening meal. Visit Bloomfield Homes at Hulen Trails today to take a closer look at the Cypress!
