MODEL HOME • 202 CIENNA COURT | CARAWAY

A second bedroom suite gives Bloomfield Homes' Caraway an extra layer of flexibility, with 4 bedrooms, 3 full baths, and a 2-car garage arranged on one level in Sunset Ridge. The front suite has its own bath and walk-in closet, while 2 additional bedrooms share a full bath across the foyer. The primary suite occupies the rear of the home, creating separation between the bedrooms and shared spaces. Its bath offers separate vanities, a garden tub, and a separate shower, with a generous walk-in closet that connects directly to the laundry room. That shortcut makes everyday routines a little easier. The family room takes center stage with a brick fireplace extending to the ceiling and a hearth that gives the feature added presence. Wood-look flooring adds another design detail, and the open kitchen keeps conversation connected across the island. Quartz countertops and undercabinet lighting bring a polished finish to the workspace, with a pantry providing room to keep essentials organized. The breakfast area sits beside the kitchen and opens to the covered rear patio, extending the gathering space beyond the family room. A dedicated laundry room and a covered front entry add practical touches to the layout, while upgraded exterior lighting gives the home definition after dark. Landscaping and a sprinkler system complete the outdoor setting. With a private suite near the entry and the primary bedroom at the back, this Caraway makes thoughtful use of its one-story design.
