Double ovens for hosting and a pot filler above the cooktop put the kitchen high on the highlight list in Bloomfield Homes' Hawthorne II, a two-story design with 4 bedrooms, 3 full baths and a 2-car garage in Addison Hills. This interior homesite pairs a defined front entry with living spaces that open toward the backyard. Glass French doors enclose the study just off the foyer, while laminate flooring carries a consistent look through the home. Raised ceilings over the family room and breakfast area add volume where everyone gathers. A corner fireplace takes the drama higher with tile extending to the ceiling and a cedar mantel. The Deluxe Kitchen connects directly to these spaces, keeping the island part of the conversation. Quartz countertops, a gas cooktop, double electric ovens and the added pot filler give the room substance as well as style. There's a walk-in pantry for groceries and a window seat beside the breakfast table. The main-level primary suite includes a sitting area, a window seat and a walk-in closet. Its bath features dual sinks, quartz surfaces, a soaking tub and separate shower, with upgraded tile adding detail. Two more bedrooms share a full bath on this level, and a tech center near the stairs provides another spot to organize the day. The fourth bedroom, third full bath and game room occupy the upper level, creating a separate zone for recreation. Quartz countertops and upgraded tile continue through the secondary baths. A covered rear patio with a gas drop extends the gathering space outdoors, while an upgraded 8-foot front door and exterior lighting finish the arrival.
