Bloomfield Homes' Rockcress is a one-story plan with 4 bedrooms, 3 full baths, and a 2-car garage, set on an interior homesite in Addison Hills. This version of the Rockcress puts that entrance square footage to use with a full 4th bedroom with its own full bath, giving the front of the home extra flexibility without taking space away from the main living areas. Past the foyer, the layout opens into a bright central gathering space where the family room is anchored by a stone fireplace with gas starter carried all the way to the ceiling. The Deluxe Kitchen holds its own beside it with painted cabinetry, quartz countertops, gas cooking, a gas oven, and plenty of prep space around the island. Laminate flooring connects the kitchen and family room for a clean, continuous look, while tile is used in the baths and other hardworking areas. The primary suite sits privately toward the back of the home with a window seat, walk-in closet, and a bath designed with everyday function in mind. Quartz countertops continue throughout the home, even into the secondary baths, while comfort-height toilets add another thoughtful upgrade. The utility room gets extra storage of its own with upper cabinets, and a tankless water heater keeps another practical feature working behind the scenes. Outside, an upgraded 8' front door gives the entry a taller, more finished look, while gutters and exterior lighting round out the front. In back, a covered patio with a gas stub gives you a ready-made spot for grilling and outdoor seating. Come see how Bloomfield Homes turns the Rockcress into a flexible 4-bedroom one-story at the Addison Hills!
