The Violet IV by Bloomfield Homes doesn't just check boxes—it flips the whole list into something way more exciting. Set on a standout corner lot, this home grabs your attention right away with its bold white brick exterior, sleek black accents, and a modern 8' front door with rain glass panels that hint at what's waiting inside. Step through and you're instantly welcomed by soaring ceilings, huge windows, and sunlight bouncing off the wide plank laminate floors—it feels bright, open, and anything but ordinary. The heart of the home is the vaulted Family Room that flows into a dreamy Kitchen made for gatherings big and small. Think oversized island, built-in stainless appliances, gas cooktop, and upgraded cabinets with hardware that actually makes a statement. The walk-in pantry is massive—go ahead, stock it like a chef. With 5 spacious bedrooms and 4 full baths, everyone has their own space. Every bedroom has a bathroom either connected or just outside the door. Upstairs, the Game Room and Media Room are ready for movie marathons and game nights. A second-floor overlook adds that open, airy vibe that keeps the whole house feeling connected. The Primary Suite is tucked away on the main floor and it's everything: big windows, relaxing color palette, and a spa-style bath that includes dual vanities, soaking tub, and a walk-in shower with a convenient bench seat. You'll also love the detailed touches like the Laundry Room with hooks and a mud bench, charming window seats, tankless water heater, and the covered patio that's just waiting for a string of café lights and a grill. This one blends style with function in all the right ways and stands out from the crowd—in the best way possible. Come see what makes it different.
