This Hawthorne II by Bloomfield Homes features a well-designed layout with upgraded finishes throughout. The open-concept living area is enhanced by raised ceilings with stained beams spanning the family room and nook, creating architectural interest while maintaining a spacious feel. At the heart of the home, the Deluxe Kitchen offers upgraded finishes, generous counter space, abundant cabinetry, and a glass pantry door, all positioned to overlook the main living area. A floor-to-ceiling stacked stone fireplace serves as a striking focal point in the family room, while the traditional dining space has been converted into a private study enclosed with glass French doors. An impressive 8-foot front door adds to the home's curb appeal and welcoming entry. The private primary suite is thoughtfully separated from the secondary bedrooms, providing comfort and privacy, while the remainder of the floor plan offers flexibility for everyday living and entertaining. Visit Stone River Glen by Bloomfield Homes today to tour this beautiful home and learn more about the community.
