Glass-front kitchen cabinets and wrought iron railing give Bloomfield Homes' Lily IV a distinctive look, with 5 bedrooms, 4 full baths, a powder bath and a 3-car garage in Sunrise at Garden Valley. Wood flooring extends through the main living areas and primary bedroom, while 8-foot doors add scale across the first floor. The family room makes a statement with a tile-to-ceiling fireplace and open views toward the upper level. Railings along the catwalk and game-room overlook keep the architecture in view. The Deluxe Kitchen features painted cabinets with coordinating pulls, quartz countertops and an extended island that gives prep and serving more room. Glass-front upper cabinets add display space, complemented by an upgraded pull-down faucet, pot filler, cooktop and double electric ovens. The breakfast area connects to a covered patio with a gas stub, and a separate dining area near the entry provides another place to gather. The main-floor primary suite has separate vanities, a soaking tub, separate shower and a large walk-in closet. A second bedroom and full bath are nearby, with a tiled shower replacing the standard tub in that secondary bath. Three additional bedrooms occupy the upper level, including a spacious suite with a walk-in closet and adjoining bath. A game room and enclosed, raised media room give recreation separate spaces. Wood fencing defines the backyard. Brick and stone, a brick-paver front porch, an upgraded 8-foot front door and exterior lighting complete this interior homesite.
